PRESIDENT ROBAK PRESIDING

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Good morning and welcome to the George W. Norris Legislative Chamber. Our chaplain for the day is Pastor Carol Rottmer Brewer of Southgate United Methodist Church in Lincoln, from Senator Crosby's district. Pastor Brewer.

PASTOR CAROL ROTTMER BREWER: (Prayer offered.)

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Pastor Brewer. I now call the fifty-second legislative day to session. Will senators please record your presence?

SENATOR COORDSEN PRESIDING

CLERK: I have a quorum present, Mr. President.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Any corrections to the Journal?

CLERK: I have no corrections.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Messages, reports and announcements.

CLERK: A series of reports. One from the Board of Examiners for County Highway and City Street Superintendents; from the Railway Council; from the Department of Labor; a series of Natural Resources Districts reports, all required to be filed in the Clerk's Office, be available in the Clerk's Office for member review. That's all that I have, Mr. President.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. Before we proceed to the first item on the agenda, I would like to announce that I have guests this morning. Number one, my shadow for the day, Adam Sparling from here in Lincoln. Adam, would you stand up, please. And his student teacher, Jason Adams, also from here in Lincoln. Jason is under the north balcony. Please welcome them to the Chamber this morning. Now moving on to the agenda, Select File, LB 280, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Senator Bruning, I have Enrollment and Review and review amendments pending, Senator.
